

Exhibition
of Forest Research Institute, Dehradun under
9th Uttarakhand State Science & Technology Congress (USSTC)
2014-15

Uttarakhand State Science & Technology, Jhajra, Dehradun (Uttarakhand) organized a three days 9th Uttarakhand State Science & Technology Congress from 26th to 28th February, 2015 to bring different scientific organizations and education departments on a common platform for sharing the knowledge and discuss the various issues in the field of science and technology.

The Extension Division of Forest Research Institute, Dehradun also participated in this congress and displayed the exhibits in Science & Technology Exhibition (National Science Day-2015) to demonstrate different extension activities of the institute. The stall of Extension Division of the institute was aimed at dissemination of technologies of the institute including agroforestry models, non – wood forest products, eco-friendly colours and dyes, insect pests & diseases and their management, vegetative propagation of bamboo and its utilization, seasoning of wood, rehabilitation of mines, utilization of Lantana in the form of furniture, silvicultural practices of important forestry species, genetically planting stock improvement, marketing channel for forest produces, etc. About 500 visitors visited the stall and interacted with subject specialists present at the moment. Some of them also marked their views in visitor book.

During this event Dr. Charan Singh, Scientist-D, Shri Surinder Kumar Rautela, Forest Range Officer and Shri Ajay Gulati, Research Assistant Gr. 1 remained present in the stall and interacted with visitors and also answered their queries. The demonstration was made under the supervision of Dr. Paramjeet Singh, Scientist-F. Dr. Subhash Nautiyal, Scientist-G, Dr. Paramjeet Singh, Scientist-F, Dr. S. P. Chaukiyal, Scientist-D, Dr. Charan Singh, Scientist-D and Er. Neelesh Yadav, Scientist-C participated in Brain storming sessions of the congress.

Glimpses of the Event

A view of Exhibition

FRI stall in Exhibition

FRI Stall in Exhibition

A visitor at stall

Interaction with visitors

Participation of FRI Scientists in Brain storming session of congress

Participation of FRI Scientists in Brain storming session of congress