

Report on observance of Vigilance Awareness Week, 2011

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat, Assam

In compliance with the order of the Secretary, Central Vigilance Commission, Govt. of India vide Letter No- III-3/2008/CVO/ICFRE (Vigilance Awareness Week) dated 17th Oct, 2011, the Vigilance Awareness Week was observed in Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat, Assam w.e.f. 31st October to 5th November of 2011.

The week was observed administering the CVC pledge by Dr. R. K. Borah (Vigilance Officer), RFRI, Jorhat to the employees followed by a discussion regarding the importance of the Vigilance Awareness Week. Besides, as part of 'Vigilance Awareness Week, 2011', slogan (on 'Anti-corruption' issues) and essay competitions (on Jan Lokpal Bill, RTI and its implications and Role of Govt. employees in eradication of corruption) were conducted among the employees of RFRI.

The prize distribution and closing ceremony of the Vigilance Awareness Week were held on 4th November, 2011 at the Conference Hall of RFRI, Jorhat. A popular talk on Ant-corruption was also delivered by Shri Saidul Islam (Retd. Joint Director, Employment Exchange, Jorhat) on the closing day. Ms. Imtiena Ao, Head, ARCBR, Aizwal distributed the prizes to the winners of the slogan and essay competitions.

RFRI Employees taking Vigilance Pledge and Signing in Document

A popular talk on Ant-corruption was also delivered by Shri Saidul Islam

Prize winners of various competitions